Dear Members,

Here is what David has been up to in August:

- The Dark Lantern - On Tuesday 14th this programme aired on Tyne Tees Television. It was a combination piece of adult live action/ animation and a very unique concept which is what attracted David to the project in the first place. He played 'the projectionist' ('a kind of weirdo'...David's words not mine!!) and his sidekick is the devil. The programme centres around the projectionist showing animated mythological tales on his magic lantern to please him!!
- David's Birthday - David had a hectic birthday...he'd been to Brussels the previous week-end and lost his passport so his birthday started with a trip to the US Embassy first thing in the morning to get another one! Then he had lunch at his favourite restaurant (a seafood one in Maida Vale, the part of London where he spent his first four years). And he finished the night at The Boogaloo, a club in North London. Sylvie did get quite a few packages for him for his birthday, so, may thanks for that. He then went to Somerset for a long weekend to hook up with a writer and had a great time there....

Other Information:

Little Britain - This is the name of the series in which David makes an appearance in one of the episodes. It is now being shown on BBC3 at 9pm on Tuesdays. We do not know when David's episode will air so please keep an eye out for it.

Biography - David has now got a contract for his biography and a deadline of next October 2004 for a release, he's planning a US tour to catch up with old friends, again, to research the book further and talk to people who could refresh his memory about past events. He may extend this into a world tour if budget allows (Hong Kong, Australia, etc). At this moment in time there are no plans for public appearances, it's just a very personal trip...but who knows if nearer the time there might be offers? We'll be sure to let you know if so....

UK Citizenship - David is still trying to apply for UK Citizenship, but it's taking longer than he'd hoped.

In friendship
