Dear Members,

Here is what David has been up to in September:

- Italy visit - David flew to Italy the week commencing Monday 15th. He was treated like a mega celebrity and the local radio, press, TV, etc. did some footage about his stay. They gave him more food than he'd ever seen in his life and the scenery was out of this world (East Coast, in the North). The mayor of the town held a reception for him, the local politicians turned out to....talk about STAR treatment. He reckons that he could easily find a budget for a film project there as they are so keen to have him back for much longer....
- Charity Event - On Saturday 20th David appeared at HUGO, a restaurant in Kilburn (N.London), where for £30 you would get a meal and watch a number of artists read poetry (David read from Pablo again). He was also due to sing a couple of songs too (with Hugh on guitar). He was rehearsing all afternoon....The money will be to finance a village well in Africa.
- Paris visit - On Monday 22nd David was off to Paris for a couple of days to discuss a movie project.
- Little Britain - David appeared in this comedy sketch programme which was aired on BBC3 on Tuesday 23rd. He appeared as himself in a scene which implied he'd been asked to visit a sick child in hospital (reminiscent of those late 70's and early 80's years). The parents (who spoke with very broad Birmingham accents) were more interested in chatting to David themselves and it was obvious it was they who had wanted to see David and not the child!! The expressions on David's face were great...they said it all....and they were supposed to!!

Other Information

Biography - David is hoping to go to the US to research his biography in the near future, Caris Davis, his co-writer would accompany him and they are hoping that a TV crew could follow them around to turn the research into a documentary. WOW. Double bonus if so.

In friendship
