Dear Members,

Here is what David has been up to in November:

- Eastenders - David spent Sunday 16th filming the Eastenders Xmas Special for the BBC (not sure what part he's playing but watch out for it over the holiday period).
- Death on the Nile - David was really busy all month filming this feature length movie for ITV. This is for the TV series of Agatha Christie's Poirot. The cast is great (James Fox, David Suchet...) and though his part isn't really interesting (Andrew, the US lawyer, one of the usual suspects) he is looking forward to cruising the Nile on an old steam-boat (i.e. the set). He flew off to glorious Luxor on Saturday 30th for almost 2 weeks.

Other Information

Castro's Beard - David recently got a script for a play called 'Castro's Beard', about Fidel Castro, that he finds hilarious...he's very keen on doing it...so, watch this space! No ideas of dates and places yet....obviously!!

Documentary on the Biography - Channel 4 have agreed to doing a documentary on David's biography so he will be off to the US at some point (date to be confirmed) to go on a trip down memory lane, i.e. NY, LA, South Dakota, Pittsburgh, etc. Exciting stuff!

Seasons Greetings - On behalf of the staff at the DSAC may I wish all of you a very Merry Xmas and a peaceful New Year.

In friendship
